Navigating Life Transitions with Clarity, Purpose & Resilience

SOUND FAMILIAR?

Life doesn't always change on our terms. Facing redundancy while you feel like you have barely settled in. Navigating a restructuring while needing to steady the household dynamics. Or reaching retirement — a milestone that sometimes feels more like a question mark than a celebration. Whatever the transition, the emotional weight is very real.

Many people get stuck — not from lack of capability, but from lack of a clear, supported path forward. Trying to push through alone only deepens the fog.

MEET YOUR LIFE STRATEGIST

That's where Sharon W. Mbugua comes in. With deep expertise across the adult life span, Sharon combines clinical rigour with genuine warmth to help you move from confusion to clarity — and from coping to truly thriving. Her approach blends Person-Centred Theory, Acceptance & Commitment Therapy, and Cognitive Behavioural Therapy into a personalised roadmap designed entirely around you.
